

Art of Facilitation

Kingston ON

Oct 2017 - Feb 2018, one weekend a month

An inspiring training for youth workers, teachers, artists, group leaders, changemakers...

Enhance your leadership!

Are you ready to take your group facilitation to a whole new level? Art of Facilitation (AOF) is a 5-month experiential training program that provides a step-by-step easy to implement pathway to becoming a leader who can create transformative learning experiences for groups. Based on the premise that good facilitators are authentic, creative, responsible and passionate; the training weaves personal growth with skill building in facilitation, group work, youth development and arts-based practices.

Join us and learn

- Leading-edge facilitation skills
- Effective communication
- Working effectively with diverse groups
- Engaging resistant participants
- Powerful program design skills
- Adding depth with experiential learning, creative expression and the arts
- And much more!

"I draw on the skills I learned in AOF during every workshop I lead. Beyond what I do, the way I do the work has transformed."

Alan Wong, Facilitator USA

For more details and online registration please visit <http://pyeglobal.org/kingston2017/>
Questions? Please contact Susan Janow susan@pyeglobal.org. Space is limited - register early!

Facilitator: Nadia Chaney is International Senior Trainer for PYE and a professional poet and performer. She holds a Masters in Imaginative Education and a postgraduate diploma in Dialogue and Negotiation. Since 2002 she has facilitated over two thousand events, workshops and trainings on four continents. She specializes in creative risk-taking, emotional intelligence, and improvisation.

Facilitator: Ella Cooper is an award winning multidisciplinary artist, creative facilitator, photographer, emerging dance/documentary filmmaker, educator and community consultant. Ella has a Masters of Arts Education and extensive training in creative facilitation. She has created a multitude of empowering community centred programs across Canada.

In Partnership with:

